

Quiet Moments with God

Allow these Quiet Moments to draw you into a time of refreshing, reflection and rest with the Lord. Take time.

In The Silence

Sit comfortably. Take a few deep breaths. Become still. Slowly read this poem by Edwina Gately and let the words settle deep within.

Let Your God Love You

Be silent

Be still

Alone

Empty

Before your God

Say nothing

Ask nothing

Be silent

Let your God look upon you

That is all

God knows

God understands

God loves you

Relax. Be still. Take your time; re-read the poem.

Offer your prayers

There Is Nothing

Laura Story

Lord I come before You
To honour and adore You
For who You are and all that You have done
Lord I am not worthy
My heart is dark and dirty
Still somehow You bid for me to come

So clothe me in humility
Remind me that I come before a King
And there is nothing
There is nothing More precious, more worthy
May I gaze deeper
May I stand longer
May I press onward to know You Lord

May our time be sweeter
May I be a keeper
Of the promises I make to You in song
Lord may I remember these moments of surrender
And live my life this way from this day on

So clothe me in humility
Remind me, that I come before a King
And there is nothing
There is nothing
More precious, more worthy
May I gaze deeper
May I stand longer
May I press onward to know You Lord

So clothe me in humility
Remind me... that I come before a King
And there is nothing
There is nothing
More precious, more worthy
May I gaze deeper
May I stand longer
May I press onward to know You Lord
May I press onward to know You Lord
